

SOCIETY HEARING LECTURES

More Than Usual Quiet Prevails for This Time of the Year, as Lent Approaches.

INTEREST IN ENGAGEMENTS

Social Calendar.
SUNDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert Vincent, dinner party for Prof. and Mrs. George R. Chatburn of Lincoln.

MONDAY—Alma Gluck-Effren Zimbalist, concert parties at Brandeis theater, Central Lake Swimming Club, luncheon at Commercial club; Team Auction Bridge club, Mrs. Rufus Harris' hostess.

TUESDAY—Mrs. Edgar A. Baird and Mrs. Raymond Hayward, hostesses at bridge luncheon at home of Mrs. Baird; Debutsante Bridge club, Miss Stella Thommell, hostess; American Music club, Mrs. T. J. Cahill, hostess; Forthnightly Bridge club, Miss Olga Storz, hostess; Orpheum theater party for Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bunting; Tuesday evening, luncheon at All Saints Sewing guild, Mrs. W. G. Fuller, hostess; Tuesday Bridge club, Miss Elizabeth Congdon, hostess; Trumble club; Noddy Craft guild of Omaha; the students at Turpin's academy.

WEDNESDAY—Subscription club dance at Turpin's academy; preceding the dance dinners will be given by Mr. and Mrs. John A. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barker, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Erongan, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hall and Mrs. Dan Wheeler and Miss Ida Sharp; Wednesday Bridge club, Mrs. Alice Dinnin, hostess; Mr. and Mrs. Barton Millard, dinner for Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Hollingshead; Cinnoch club dancing party, French Rite.

THURSDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keele, dinner and dance for members of Tuesdays Bridge club; Mrs. Peter Elvad, luncheon and Operetta theater party; Mrs. Charles E. L. St. John of New York City; Pagoda club dancing party, Metropolitan hall.

FRIDAY—Sixth club dancing party, Turpin's academy; Prof. L. B. Stoughton, lectures at Sacred Heart Academy and Omaha Society of Arts; Young People's Christian association 3 p.m.; McKinley party, Mrs. Charles G. Everson, hostess; Brandeis theater parties.

SATURDAY—Misses Sweet, matinee dances, Turpin's academy; Wednesday bridge club, evening party, Miss Gladys and Daphne Peters, hostesses; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page, Brandeis theater party.

With the advent of Lent the social pace, instead of looming up is slowing down perceptibly, possibly because Lent does not have the same significance now as in bygone days and little affects the social calendar.

Society at present is enjoying lectures in this interval between seasons. The lectures being given by Prof. L. B. Stoughton Holborn under the management of the Fine Arts society are of keen interest to all. Judging from the enthusiasm of his audiences the announcement that he is to give an extra lecture at the Sacred Heart academy Friday afternoon is delighting the many who have taken such pleasure in his Friday evening talks. This lecture at the convent is open to everyone on payment of a small admission fee and Prof. Stoughton Holborn will talk on "The Greek Drama."

Here's a Chance to Guess.

Society is guessing these days—or shall I say always?—but, any way, society is guessing a little strenuously just today, and possibly will tomorrow.

One of the debutantes is going to announce her engagement in two weeks. As a little hint I will tell you the maid is fair. The man is now located in the east, but until very recently was a westerner.

Off for Warmer Climes.

Mrs. Thomas Hayes and small son left yesterday for Galveston, Texas, to join Lieutenant Hayes, after spending several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Ringwall. Lieutenant Hayes is building a bungalow which faces the sea-wall at Galveston and they will occupy it during the remainder of their stay in the South.

Mrs. C. E. Johannes left Thursday for Los Angeles and after a week there, will go to La Jolla to join Mrs. Charles Colton. Mrs. Johannes expects to be gone for about three months.

Colonel and Mrs. S. S. Curtis and Miss Curtis reached Havana last week on their way to Panama, and upon their return there will stop at the Hotel Ingles for awhile before going on to Florida.

Mrs. W. R. Mathews, who went to Los Angeles shortly after Christmas, will be gone another week or two.

Mrs. W. Farnam Smith and Mr. B. F. Smith expect to go south about the first of February.

With the Wayfarers.

Mrs. Austin Collett and children will leave this evening for New York City, where they will join Mr. Collett and sail Friday, January 25, for San Domingo. Miss Harrist Copley accompanies Mr. and Mrs. Collett and will be a guest at their home for several weeks.

Mrs. Walter B. McCormick leaves today to visit her mother at Morristown, N. J., and also Mr. McCormick's family in Baltimore. Mrs. McCormick takes her children with her and will be gone two or three months. Mr. McCormick will be at the Omaha club.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edson Rich and son, Emile, left Monday in a private car for Paurot Christian, Miss., to be gone about two months. Mr. Rich has been ordered by his physician to take a complete vacation and rest from business.

Mrs. Fred Lake and daughter Katharine left last Saturday for Los Angeles, where they will visit relatives for a month or more. Before returning they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Joy Morton of Chicago, who are in their Pasadena home for the winter.

With the Visitors.

Mrs. F. C. Lester and daughter, Misses of Elvira, Ill., are visiting Mrs. Leopold's mother, Mrs. B. W. Christie, at 222 Boyd street.

Miss Mary Burkley expects Miss Elizabeth Fleming of Burlington, Ia., to be her guest next week. Miss Fleming was here two years ago when Miss Burkley made her debut and is remembered as a most charming and attractive girl.

Mr. E. M. Martin of Des Moines, formerly of Omaha, spent the last week-end as the guest of Mrs. Mabel Ogden at the Colonial.

Mrs. Dickey of Dayton, O., has arrived to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. de Forest Richards.

English Balladists Here.

Under the auspices of the Sacred Heart Alumni association, the Fuller sisters have been engaged to give a recital in Omaha on the afternoon of February 8, at the Boyd theater, at 4 p.m. The Fuller sisters of whom there are three, all young and pretty, give a charmingly artistic entertainment and are well known in the east, where they have enjoyed a great vogue. Their songs are English, Scotch and Irish folk songs, two of them singing while the third plays a harp accompaniment.

and their costumes are the quaint ones of the early Victorian period.

This will be the first appearance of the Fuller sisters west of Chicago.

They will come direct from the Little theater in Chicago for this performance and will leave the same evening for the coast. Mrs. L. F. Crofton, president of the Sacred Heart Alumnae, is eager to interest the children in this ballad program and for that reason a special price has been made for children. Tickets may be secured from Sacred Heart alumnae.

Solons' Wives Meet.

The Legislative Ladies' league, which was founded two years ago at the beginning of the legislature and made a permanent organization at the close of the session, met in the parlor of the Lindell hotel, Lincoln, Wednesday afternoon for a business meeting. Mrs. John H. Morehead, wife of the governor, is the honorary president and very active in the league. Mrs. M. A. Hostetter of Sheldon was re-elected president; Mrs. Philip H. Kohl of Wayne, vice president; Mrs. Walter Kiechel of Johnson, recording secretary; Mrs. A. E. Sheldon of Lincoln, treasurer. About forty women were present, and the indications are that the league will be very active in a social way this winter. Mrs. Morehead entertained the wives of the legislators and

Wednesday night.

Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keele, dinner and dance for members of Tuesdays Bridge club; Mrs. Peter Elvad, luncheon and Operetta theater party; Mrs. Charles E. L. St. John of New York City; Pagoda club dancing party, Metropolitan hall.

FRIDAY—Sixth club dancing party, Turpin's academy; Prof. L. B. Stoughton Holborn under the management of the Fine Arts society are of keen interest to all. Judging from the enthusiasm of his audiences the advent of Lent the social pace, instead of looming up is slowing down perceptibly, possibly because Lent does not have the same significance now as in bygone days and little affects the social calendar.

Society at present is enjoying lectures in this interval between seasons. The lectures being given by Prof. L. B. Stoughton Holborn under the management of the Fine Arts society are of keen interest to all. Judging from the enthusiasm of his audiences

The announcement that he is to give an extra lecture at the Sacred Heart academy Friday afternoon is delighting the many who have taken such pleasure in his Friday evening talks. This lecture at the convent is open to everyone on payment of a small admission fee and Prof. Stoughton Holborn will talk on "The Greek Drama."

At the Brandeis Theater.

The following parties have made reservations for the Friday evening performance of David Warfield at the Brandeis theater:

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, T. F. Kennedy, T. L. Davis, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Eva Wallace, Misses—

Elizabeth Covington, Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—

Mildred Butler, Gladys Peters, Mary Burkley, Daphne Peters, Pauline Rose, John Caldwell, Robert Burns, Gerald Wharton, Stockton Meth, Cuthbert Bradford, Bert Gashauer, C. W. Hull.

Atmospheric Club.

The Atmosphere Club has been

meeting at the Country club heretofore, gave both their dinner and dance at the Rome hotel. The dinner was served from small tables arranged in the ball room, and later it was cleared for the dance. This is the third of a series of dinner dances this club has given this winter and plans one more affair before Lent. The guests last evening were:

Men and Mesdames—

A. V. Kline, Harold Pritchett, Barton Millard, Harry Tuker, John T. Stewart, J. D. Powers, Walter Roberts, Louis Clarke, John Redick, Walter McCormick, Fred Hamilton, Misses—